

Corporate Transparency Act

How it affects you and your business.

What is Corporate Transparency Act?

The Corporate Transparency (CTA), enacted in 2021, goes into effect on January 1, 2024.

- ❖ Passed to enhance transparency in entity structures and ownership.
- ❖ To combat money laundering, tax fraud, and other illicit activities.
- ❖ It is designed to capture more information about the ownership of specific entities operating in or accessing the U.S. market.
- ❖ It is important in that it creates a level of transparency that is necessary for business owners.

CTA Requirements

The CTA requires many small businesses to file Beneficial Ownership Information (BOI) to the Financial Crimes Enforcement Network (FinCEN) of the US Treasury Department. Essentially - who owns or controls their businesses.

Beneficial Owner - a “natural person who, directly or indirectly, through any contract, arrangement, understanding, relationship, or otherwise: (1) exercises substantial control over such company (2) owns 25% or more of such company.”

Reporting Business Structures

The CTA affects most reporting companies. In Texas, these companies typically include:

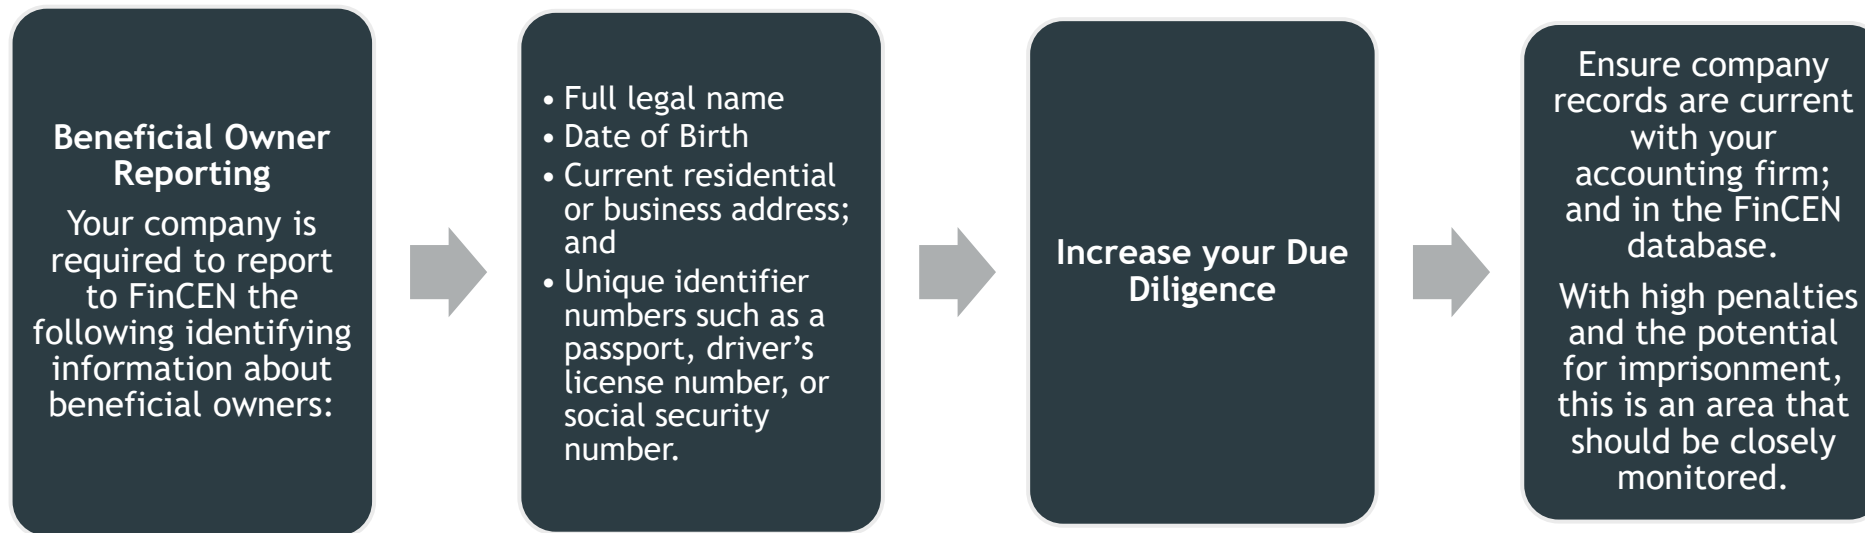

Limited Liability Company (LLC)

Limited Partnerships (LP)

Limited Liability Partnerships (LLP)

Corporations
